WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section tonight, Tuesday, cloudy; light to fresh north to northeast winds.

HOLY WEEK—This is Holy week, during which the passion, death and burial of Christ are commemorated in the Catholic, Protestant, Episcopal and Lutheran churches. The special observances of the closing scenes of the life of Christ during the week before Easter is of very ancient origin. It was mentioned by Irenaeus towards the end of the second century, and it was the belief of Eusebius that the custom dated from the times of the Apostles. In early times the Christians kept an absolute fast during the whole week.

The following is the schedule of services to be held at the churches in this city:

Christ Church—Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, 7 a. m.; Thursday, (Holy Communion) 8 p. m.; Good Friday, 7 a. m. and 11 a. m.; St. Paul's—Monday, 4:30 p. m.; Tuesday, 4:30 p. m.; Wednesday, 11:00 a. m., 7:30 p. m.; Thursday, Holy Communion 7:30 a. m., Evening prayer 4:30 p. m.; Good Friday, 11:00 a. m.

Grace Church—Monday, 7:00 a. m.; Tuesday, Annunciation, 7:00 a. m.; Holy Communion, 10:00 a. m.; Wednesday, 7:00 a. m., and 7:30 p. m.; Maundy Thursday, Holy Communion, 7:00 a. m., and 10:00 a. m.; Good Friday, Morning Service, 10:00 a. m., Passion Service, 12:00 to 3:00 p. m., Evening Prayer, 7:30 p. m.; Easter Eve, 7:00 a. m.

Tammany Lutheran—Monday, and Thursday, Evening Service, 7:30 p. m.; Good Friday, 11:00 a. m.

The services for St. Mary's Church will be arranged this evening.

PALM SUNDAY—Yesterday was an ideal spring Sunday, and the streets were thronged with people from early morn until late at night. The heavens were clear, the temperature mild and all conditions conducive for enjoying a pleasant outing. Many strangers visited the city during the day and buggies, bicycles and baby carriages were in evidence.

Through the grave yards and others took long strolls into the country. The churches had more than average congregations. Services peculiar to Palm Sunday were observed in the Episcopal, Catholic and Lutheran Churches, and the distribution of the slips was bountiful, hundreds of people having the emblems on the lapels of their coats. The prophecy of the Weather Bureau, issued Saturday, to the effect that rainy weather would prevail yesterday, was far from being fulfilled, and no one regretted the miscarriage.

ARRESTED IN THIS CITY—George B. Ryan, nineteen years old, an inmate of St. Elizabeth's Asylum in the District of Columbia, escaped from his father while walking in Washington yesterday morning, and was captured late yesterday afternoon in this city. The boy has been an inmate of the asylum for nearly a year, and has been considered harmless. His father frequently secured permission to take him home for a day, and such permission was granted yesterday morning. He succeeded in getting away from the father. He had just enough money to pay his fare here. He was arrested on suspicion by a policeman, who was attracted to him by his strange actions and was returned to the asylum last night.

RESIGNED—Mr. William Wood, for several years the efficient engineer of the Columbia steam fire engine, has tendered his resignation to the Board of Fire Wardens and to the Columbia company to take effect on the 30th inst. Mr. Wood, who is an expert machinist, will resume that occupation, he having accepted a position in Washington. During the time he has been in the employ of the city he has concentrated his attention to his duties, in which he took much pride, and his retirement is regretted by his many friends and acquaintances.

CONDUCTING BUSINESS WITHOUT A LICENSE—George Constantinople was fined $5 in the Police Court this morning for peddling bananas in the street without a license.

Charles M. Gasman was before the Mayor charged with selling goods without a license. He was dismissed, as it did not appear that he had sold or offered goods for sale. He was found exhibiting breastpins and endeavoring to employ school children to sell them for him. The children were told that a license was necessary for them to engage in the business.

OPERA HOUSE—Local theatre goes on partial to musical comedy and an excellent performance of this order is promised for tomorrow evening, entitled "Finnigan's Ball." The piece is without deep plot, yet the threads of the story are cleverly held together and the ludicrous adventures of the quaint characters are pleasantly exploited through out the end of comic scenes and laughable witticisms. Of music there is promised a plentiful supply of up to date songs, melody and ensemble features.

DEATHS—Mrs. Gertrude A. Davis, wife of Mr. Edward Davis, of Washington, formerly of this city, died in Washington on Saturday last. She had been a sufferer from consumption. The remains will be brought here for interment at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

James A., the four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Curtin, died at his parents' residence, 1416 Duke street, last night.

Tonight, a Free Lecture. The lecture to be to have been given last Friday night will be given this evening in the Business Men's League parlors by Prof. Haupt at 7:45. An evening of rarest entertainment is assured all who will attend.

This lecture is preliminary to the course of German and French lessons which opens at Alexandria Hall, west in the League parlors to be given on Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights. In Washington daily at 9:15 a. m. and 4:15 p. m. in Warder Building, this week, a course begins. Tuition is very reasonable and one tuition admits to both classes. Full particulars will be given this evening, and regardless of any thought of taking this valuable course during which a practical use of Germany's daily language is guaranteed, you are invited to the enjoyment of the novel exercises of this evening.

FIGHTS—Several fights occurred in Alexandria during the past thirty-six hours. On Saturday night Arthur Mackin caused considerable excitement in the western part of the city by appearing in a drunken condition and a bellicose state of mind at the corner of Payne and Commerce street and abusing a man named Simpson who keeps a store there. The proprietor beat him from the premises with a stick. Mackin appeared later armed with bottles and mislaid a man named Woodward for Simpson threw a bottle at him. He hurled another which struck Mrs. Simpson. Police whistles were blown until Officer Travers reached the scene and placed Mackin under arrest. The Mayor this morning fined him twenty-five dollars—five for drunken and disorderly conduct and twenty for assault. He failed to pay the assessments and was held.

About twelve o'clock the same night an alarm was sounded from the neighborhood of the Fayette street depot. Officer Young responded and arrested a disorderly negro named Hattie Fountain, who had incited a row in an eating house in that locality. She was arrested and fined $5 this morning.

There was also a row in a saloon in the southern end of the city Saturday night, during which a negro named Twain was kicked into the street. The latter drew a knife on his assailant—a white man. The negro subsequently swore out a warrant against a young white man who, according to the evidence, was not on the scene, charging him with assault. The accused was brought before the Mayor this morning and dismissed.

A fight occurred on the corner of Duke and Fairfax streets about nine o'clock last night. Four young men participated in the disorder. The police are making an investigation.

PERSONAL—Miss Mamie Hobenstein of Baltimore is visiting her cousin, Mrs. C. H. Zimmerman, in this city. Mr. A. J. Guilfoyle, of Washington, and Miss Josie Belle Demott, of this city, will be married in Washington to-night.

Engineer Thomas Rowen, injured in the recent accident near Manassas, is able to be out again. He is using crutches.

At the University of Virginia on Saturday evening in the contest of debaters, Mr. J. R. Caton, Jr., of this city, was selected as one of the number to debate with Columbian University of Washington next week.

COUNTY COURT—Judge J. M. Love, presiding.—The will of G. H. Mortimer was admitted to probate.

Mrs. E. M. Osterlander qualified as executrix of the estate of P. T. Osterlander, and Miss Josie Belle Demott, of this city, was appointed with John Bruce, executor, indicted for assaulting with intent to kill another colored man; jury and case in progress.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Washington authorities are again becoming exercised over alleged policy-playing at Rosslyn and Jackson City. It is said that many runners, colored people, canvass Washington daily for the dealers.

In the Corporation Court today in the case of O. A. Waittlesy et al. vs. Cora Whittlesy et al. a decree was entered sustaining the demurrer of Messrs. S. Hart and Booth to the answer of B. F. Ellis to their petition.

John Garibaldi, a street peddler, was fined $5 this morning in the Police Court for disorderly conduct Saturday afternoon near the intersection of King and Royal streets. He denied the charges urged against him, although a witness positively testified to his conduct.

Mr. Robert Travers will have some of the finest black bass for sale in market tomorrow that have been seen hereabouts for a long time. He will also have several other varieties, including shad and herring.

The report to the effect that Captain B. F. Knox, receiver of the Kretol Chemical Company, is about to institute proceedings against the directors of that organization, is now in the hands of the court for consideration.

A marriage license was issued in Washington on Saturday to Robert Ernest Dickey and Minnie Matthews, both of Fairfax county.

Norman, the little son of Mr. Harry Moore who lived on Alfred street, near Duke, died this evening. Mr. Moore is extremely ill.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

The suffrage conference on Saturday wiped off the slate and made a fresh start. They agreed to lay on the table all previous plans and take only the compromise plan and the one presented by the members who did not agree with the compromise committee. The fight will commence over them today, and will continue until one or both are discarded, as all the others have been.
